even in the high school graduating classes this year. One hundred and leven girls and fifty-five boys were in the class which graduated from the Topeka high school Friday night. Many of the boys who would have graduated with the class of June '18 are at pres ent engaged in preparing for gradua-tion from the great humanitarian school of war, and it is thought that many of the boys who received di-plomas last night will be tried in the fire within a few months. The di-plomas were presented by Mrs. C. J. Evans, president of the board of edu-cation.

Ruth Augusta Hawkes carried off first honors for scholarship among the members of the class: Viola Frances Van Nice took second honors; and twenty-seven other members of the class won places on the honor roll. They are: Arno Abmeyer, Alfred Aldridge, Edgar Bender, Harry Bone, Jr., Lillian Boon, Leah Bryden, Philip Fable, Maurice Freidberg, Marjorie Fulton, Anna Heil, Harold Herrington, Vivian Horsfield, Mary Hughes, Naemi Johnson, Louie Jury, Ina Kannarr, Eva Kettering, Harold Retter, Eugene Roose, Rose Schriefer, Rebecca Scott, Neva Shoemaker, Gladys Smith, Marian Squire, Mary Tasker, Isabel Whitoomb and Thelta Willitts.
The class officers are: President, Glen Davis; vice president, George Greenwood; secretary, Eva Kettering; treasurer, Carol Button; sergeant-atarms, Maurice Freidberg, Advisers; Miss Nellie Ansel, Mass Carmie Wolfe, Miss Ruth Hunt.
The program included musical numbers by Mildred Hazelrigg, Thelma Huston, Inex Horner, Elizabeth Van Ness, Juliet Hughes, Marjorie Fulton, Horace Bowman, the girls' glee club, the girls' quartet, the boys' glee club and the high school orchestra. The invocation was given by the Rev. Joseph P. Hicks, of the Second Presbyterian church.

Crumbine Scholarship,

One of the features of the gradua One of the features of the graduation exercises was the presentation of the Warren Crumbine scholarship memorial to Harold Herrington of College avenue and Munson street. This scholarship was earned by Herrington, who has worked his way thruschool. It was given by the Amos-Bird company of China, where the late Warren Crumbine, son of Dr. S. J. Crumbine, secretary of the state board of health, was employed. The scholarship is given to one deserving boy in each high school graduating class, and applies to Washburn college only. Herrington is the son of W. W. Herrington, a mail carrier at Hoyt, Kan.
